U. S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PICKS OHIO MAN AS HEAD

Polk, Democratic Campaign Manager, Davis' Close Friend

IGNORER BY BEAUTY CONTEST JUDGES, SHE SHEARS HER LOCKS AND WINS

Richard F. Grant, former head of Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, is the new president of U. S. Chamber of Commerce, succeeding Julius Barnes of Duluth.

Frank L. Polk, of New York City, chosen by John W. Davis to direct the Democratic campaign, was the last of several men to hold the office of secretary of state in the Wilson cabinet. He is one of the closest friends of the nominee.

Miss Ruth Ellington.

You can't prove to Miss Ruth Ellington that bobbed hair isn't an aid to beauty. She entered a beauty contest in St. Paul, Minn., and was passed up by the judges in a preliminary competition. She noticed that two winners in the preliminaries had bobbed hair. She visited a barber and separated herself from her luxuriant locks. The next day she entered the contest. She was chosen queen of queens.

July Shoe Clearance

A speaker at a recent retail convention suggested the following business axiom, which we consider worthy of repeating. It is as follows:

"Business goes only where it is invited and stays only where it is treated well."

The truth of this axiom is proven by the continued growth of those stores that always consider the customer's interest first, and this principle was recognized by us and put into effect when this store was started. Everything we do at this store is done with the aim to please our customers—to give courteous service—offer quality merchandise—make the fairest possible prices—in short, to make shopping here so pleasant that every customer will want to come back again and again.
